Durham West Arts Centre presents Carl Stedmond

in fundraising concert for Japan tsunami relief

Features tributes to The Beatles, Rod Stewart, originals

The Durham West Arts Centre is proud to present one of Durham's premier singing stars, Carl Stedman, in concert to benefit Japan tsunami relief efforts.

On Saturday, May 7, from 2-4 p.m., Carl will perform in the Pickering Public Library auditorium located at One The Esplanade.

Carl will sing a collection of old standards from Rod Stewart and the Beatles. He will then move on to perform original songs of hope, harmony and peace from his highly-acclaimed album, 'The Diary of an Uneducated Man'. Carl's personal motto of "you must be the change you want to see in the world" is infused throughout his strong repertoire.

An all-original album, Carl's CD boasts a compilation of songs that reflects his beliefs, sentiments and his love for life itself. 'The Diary of An Uneducated Man' is sure to inspire a lot of people as it unveils the many facets of his life. The concert features songs Carl composed including 'Voices', 'Go Within' and 'Eight Million Reasons'.

This event also supports Durham West Arts Centre.
