Pickering – Over 120 singers and 40 visual artists are gearing up to participate in Mystery Masterpiece, the joint fundraiser of the Durham West Arts Centre (DWAC) and the Durham West Arts Centre Foundation at Deer Creek Banquet Facility on Thursday, April 19, 2007 starting at 7 p.m.

Franklin the Turtle illustrator, Brenda Clark, sculptors Edward Falkenberg and Ruth Abernethy plus artists Pamela Auguste, Angela Hennessey and Dorsey James are just a few of the masters back this year to keep the revellers guessing as to who created which masterpiece. A silent auction and live auction make available more than 50 premier art works. Many artists will be on hand to meet their new patrons.

The Young Singers, the Durham Philharmonic Choir and special guest soloists such as Dr. Gary Polonsky, will entertain throughout the evening. Emcee, Pickering Councillor Rick Johnson will be supported by a galaxy of Honourary Chairs such as Mayor David Ryan of Pickering, M.P. Mark Holland and M.P.P. Wayne Arthurs.

Tickets at $100 a piece are available from Gary Faulkner at 905-686-1325 or info@dwac.ca with information for artists' tickets available as well through www.dvac.ca

The two charitable arts organizations, DWAC and the DWAC Foundation, share the Vision to create a performing and visual arts centre in west Durham.
