Mystery Masterpiece Excitement Builds

[Pickering] The community is rallying around Mystery Masterpiece, a joint Durham West Arts Centre (DWAC) and DWAC Foundation fundraiser that takes place April 19th at Deer Creek Banquet Facility starting at 6:30 p.m.

Robert Thackeray, Angela Hennessey, Dorsey James, Nancy Howell, Linda Lee Purvis, Edward Falkenberg and Don Hightower are just a few of the mystery artists whose works will be on display. There will be over 40 works available for silent auction.

With over 120 voices in two of Durham's premier choirs, jazz pianists from Dunbarton High School and some mystery soloists, the evening is jam-packed with talent.

Politicians of all levels representing west Durham are Honourary Chairs for the event. Regional Councillor Rick Johnson emcees with Pickering Mayor Ryan on hand to support both DWAC and the DWAC Foundation.

"We thank Ontario Power Generation, OLG – The Slots at Ajax Downs, University of Ontario Institute of Technology, Veridian, and Hubbell Canada for being the first corporate sponsors," reports Gary Faulkner, DWAC Manager in charge of organizing the event. "Many more sponsors will be recognized in our formal program."

"The ticket price goes well beyond an evening of superb entertainment. Each person there helps us take small steps towards a future arts centre," says Foundation Chair Justice David Stone. "Little by little, brick by brick, we will build an arts centre."
