Brochures outlining the exhibitions and activities at Durham's four public art museums, the Clarington Visual Arts Centre, Robert McLaughlin Gallery, Whitby Station Gallery and Durham West Arts Centre, are in Information Centres surrounding Durham Region as well as those within Durham. The Museum Month brochure designed by Andrea Ketelaars of the Durham West Arts Centre, is available at library branches in Whitby, Oshawa and Pickering and at 70 information racks in hotels, attractions and community centres across the Region. "Durham's public art museums educate, inspire and preserve," said Executive Director David Aurandt of the McLaughlin Gallery at the April 28th press launch. "Everything from The Carnival to Canoe Dreamings, from lessons to lectures is available for all segments of the public," added E.D. Donna Raetsen-Kemp of Whitby's Station Gallery.

COLOURblind? the 10th Anniversary Exhibition of the Association of African-Canadian Artists is at the Durham West Arts Centre from May 1- 31st.
